

Historic Interiors Resources

Magazines

www.artsandcraftshomes.com/

To offer advice and perspective for those building, renovating or furnishing a home in the Arts and Crafts spirit.

www.oldhouseinteriors.com/

It covers American period design from 1700 to 1940, with articles on restorations, interpretive use of period decorating, kitchens and baths, furnishings, color, textiles, and more. Coverage extends to architectural styles and gardens.

www.designcentersourcebook.com/

Suppliers chosen by the editors: Search our database of companies making everything from lighting and bathtubs to carpets, wallpaper, and hardware. A whole section is devoted to period kitchens! Also available in a Sourcebook—250 beautifully illustrated pages to describe what's available, and to help you navigate the Web.

Early Homes

Our special edition devoted to houses built 1690-1850! Discover the architecture, interiors, and gardens of houses. (Available through Old House Interiors website)

Books

Gibbs Smith Publishing has over 20 books related to bungalows/Arts and Crafts

www.gibbs-smith.com

Jane Powell, Bungalow Kitchens, Gibbs Smith, Publisher, Salt Lake City

Jane Powell, Bungalow – The Ultimate Arts and Crafts Home, Gibbs Smith, Publisher, SLC

Bruce Smith & Yoshiko Yamamoto, The Beautiful Necessity—Decorating with Arts and Crafts, Gibbs Smith Publisher, Salt Lake City

Paul Duchscherer, Along Bungalow Lines – Creating an Arts & Crafts Home, Gibbs Smith, Publisher, Salt Lake City

Jenny Gibbs, Curtains and Draperies – History, Design, Inspiration, The Overlook Press, Woodstock, New York.

Elizabeth Pomada & Michael Larsen, America's Painted Ladies, Dutton Studio Books, New York

Linda Osband, Victorian House Style, David & Charles, CS Graphics Pte Ltd.

Roger W. Moss, Lighting for Historic Buildings, The Preservation Press, The National Trust for Historic Preservation, Washington, D.C.

Jane C. Nylander, Fabrics for Historic Buildings, The Preservation Press, Washington, D.C.

Helene Van Rosenstiel & Gail Caskey Winkler, Floor Coverings for Historic Buildings, The Preservation Press

Doreen Ehrlich, Frank Lloyd Wright – Interior Style & Design, Courage Books, Philadelphia